2010 Specialty Conference for Primary Care NPs

Choose one of the following three tracks: Cardiology for Primary Care
Dermatology for Primary Care
Orthopedics for Primary Care

February 26–28, 2010 • Gaylord Texan, Grapevine, TX

The American Academy of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) cordially invites you to attend. This conference will be offered twice in 2010 to facilitate regional attendance. The specialty conference is for the experienced primary care nurse practitioner who is seeking an intensive update in one of the following clinical areas: cardiology, dermatology or orthopedics. Beginning Friday afternoon at 1:00 PM and ending midday Sunday, attendees spend the weekend immersed in an evidenced-based, state-of-the-art, primary-care focused education in one of these three clinical areas.
