

HEDIS Update and Best Practices Call for Presentations

If your organization has demonstrated three years of continuous rate increases in any HEDIS measure or if your organization has had a valuable impact on health plan operations or quality improvement, your colleagues want to hear from you. We invite you to respond to a Call for Presentations for the NCOA 2010 HEDIS Update and Best Practices seminars.

The deadline for submission is August 18th!

There are two seminars in 2010:
October 13 and 14, in Denver, CO
October 27 and 28, in Washington, DC

For information on how to submit your presentation, contact Nichole Sutton, Education Program Manager at sutton@ncqa.org.

About NCOA

Celebrating its 20th anniversary in 2010, NCOA is a private, non-profit organization dedicated to improving health care quality. NCOA accredits & certifies a wide range of health care organizations. It also recognizes clinicians and practices in key areas of performance. NCOA's Healthcare Effectiveness Data and Information Set (HEDIS®) is the most widely used performance measurement tool in health care. NCOA is committed to providing health care quality information for consumers, purchasers, health care providers, researchers, health plans and government entities. Visit us at <http://www.ncqa.org>.
